Social Programme Friday 8th November 2013

9.30 Pick up from Seattle Hotel, Brighton Marina to travel to Alfriston.

Nestling in the Eastern end of the South Downs Park, Alfriston is a picturesque medieval village with a number of eclectic shops. Further details of the area are to be found on the websites www.visitalfriston.com and www.alfriston-village.co.uk

Places not to miss are:

The Apiary - for gifts and clothes

Peppa K - beautiful children's clothes and toys

Steamer Trading - the original Steamer Trading store for all your kitchen needs

Musical Memorabilia - where you might find the CD you have been searching for

Much Ado Books - award winning independent bookstore renowned for it's service

On arrival we will start with tea and cakes at 'Badgers Tearooms' then we can spend some time browsing in the village shops.

12.30 Pick up and transfer to 'The English Wine Centre' for a wine tasting followed by a lunch of locally sourced foods. Please do inform me if you have any dietary restrictions.

15.40 Pick up from the wine centre to return home to Seattle Hotel

I am looking forward to showing you some of the area near where we live; please do contact me on our email or on my mobile if you have any queries or concerns before the day.

Best wishes

Jenny
