

OSGB Programme November 2017

09.00_ Dr Jane Chestnut, Consultant Anaesthetist NHS Ayrshire and Arran

Sustained learning and development for the theatre team after the introduction of a new service.

09.45. Mr Craig McIlhenny, Director of the Faculty of Surgical Trainers RCSEd and Consultant Urologist NHS Forth Valley

Only fools and horses - Non-technical skills in surgery'.

10.30. Tea coffee

11.00. Dr Christine Goodall, Director of Medics Against Violence Charity and Consultant Senior Lecturer in Oral Surgery at Glasgow Dental School

The impact of MAV in dealing with knife crime in the West of Scotland

11.45. Professor Gerry McGarry Consultant Otorhinolaryngologist/ Head and Neck Surgeon NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde

Voyages with a telescope

12.30. Lunch

13.30. Dr Mark McColl Consultant Haemato-oncologist NHS Ayrshire and Arran

Arctic and subarctic landscape photography

14.15. Mr Colin Maciver Consultant OMF/Head and Neck Surgeon NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde

Complex reconstruction and facial transplant - Where does the future lie.

15.00. Tea and coffee

15.30. Dr Allan James Consultant Clinical Oncologist Beatson Oncology Centre NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde

The future of head and neck cancer treatment - Will surgery be obsolete?

16.15. End